

Freedom

Welcome to this world she said and then she turned around
As if she would know I was new there in town
With that smile on her face and being in the right place
I was not the man, to understand

She was walking like a princess and she talked like a knight
She gave me a smile and I knew she was worth fighting for
I hoped to see her again and have this feeling once more
And start a new life, a new life with her

Come on over, just come to me
Don't ask questions about things you can't see
Just live this moment, it's all there to live
Now take this hand and save this kiss

For you, for you

Nobody knew her and had seen such a girl
"You're chasing a dream" they said and I should compromise
But she stole a part of me I didn't know I had
So my journey began not knowing to where
Finally found a job with the Mc Gregory's plant
The work was harsh, the wages not too bad
Trying to start a life out there so nothing went wrong
I just closed my eyes to hear this song
