

I've been around to hear that sound.... Of hope
I've been away to search for friends ...and play
But now we're going back to hear some more
And when we are getting therehome
No fights to fear just listen here ...and learn
These crazy nights beautiful lights will burn
In this silent world, we thrive so well
How we drown each time ,the stories they tell
They don't take apart this peace of art...just smell
These tales for you
"Les histoires perdues"

And now we know the tales and so..... to tell
Don't need a dime, just a little time.... from you
You 'll see horses run, children's fun, no tears
When you close your eyes, a clear blue sky, appears
With birds we fly, and feeling high.....just float

The seas we sail, and never fail... to love
Just remember this with a closed eyes-kiss and go
When we meet someday and have time to stay..we tell
These stories again with you my friend.....my friend
Nous allons raconter des histoires perdues
