

Open Up

Music & Lyrics Rene Heesakkers

DREAMFIELD

© 12 th october 2009

Why waiting in this house any longer while life should be lived outdoors you know and all your time has been wasted with going back in(side), as if there's something more and the lack of light, lack of love it never seems to touch you while the others are playing outside you never play at all

Refr. just open up, open up those doors pull away, pull away those curtains then you'll know what's left in store and the world, may seem to scare you but this world, is gonna dare you how would you ever find it going back to a place where there's nothing left you sure know how to pretend it goes better while nothing goes at all

Refr. just open up, open up those doors
pull away, pull away those curtains

then you'll know what's left in store
and the world, may seem to scare you
but this world is gonna dare you

SOLO

Why waiting in this house any longer why life should be lived outdoors you know and all your time has been wasted
with going back in(side) , as if there's something more
and the lack of light, lack of love
it never seems to touch you
while the others are playing outside
you never play at all

Refr. just open up, open up those doors
pull away, pull away those curtains
then you'll know what's left in store
and the world, may seem to scare you
but this world, is gonna dare you

(2x)