DREAMFIELD

It took some time before you drove away
This fight we had wasn't here to stay
I hope you're feeling fine now
But I'm always insecure about those days
I heard your story but now you'll be hearing mine
We had our moments in these crazy times
I often saw the sunset
But I never saw the yellow bastard shine
And he started to sing

Lala lala lala lala

Oh my Lord you were said to be my friend
This lady you've send, she must stay until the end?
I hope you're feeling fine now
But where is your religious and common sense
I heard your story but please do hear my sound
Like a book with a lot of paper but no content to be found
I'm big time over you baby
And I will show you how to start a fight
And she started to sing

Lala lalal lala lala
